

What is NavC and Why Is It a Good Investment?

NavC is the native utility token of NavExM, developed by the Next-Generation NavExM team to fuel all the extraordinary features of the exchange.

The demand for NavC will increase with each trade resulting in capital appreciation.

Why Should You Consider Investing?

01

TOKEN UTILITY

- NavExM trading ecosystem creates strong utility for its native token, NavC. The unique Automated Market Maker of NavExM ensures that all the transactions on the exchange route through NavC token.

02

LIMITED SUPPLY

- NavC has a fixed supply of a total of 112.50 billion tokens, out of which only a small quantity of 0.04% will be available for investors to Purchase & Stake. Limited supply and growing demand create a perfect growth equation for the NavC token.

03

CONTINUOUS DEMAND

- It is expected that NavExM will acquire 25% of the daily total trading volume of the top 20 crypto exchanges within the first year of its launch. Higher transactions on the exchange will ensure continuous and consistent demand for the NavC token.

04

COMMUNITY ACCEPTANCE

- NavExM is the project that backs the NavC token. Enormous benefits offered by NavExM exchange will undoubtedly attract crypto enthusiasts.
